ANNOUNCEMENTS / ANUNCIOS:

This Sunday we celebrate Christ the King Sunday. This is the last Sunday in the liturgical year, which anticipates and celebrates Christ's kingdom coming in its fullness. Our practice at PSMC to mark this day as a time to celebrate foot washing that reminds us of Jesus's servant leadership and a mutual aid offering that responds to Jesus call to bear one another's burden.

The Pastoral Search and Discernment Committee has been working. We have considered several potential pastoral candidates, considering how they might fit the needs and opportunities of Prairie Street Mennonite Church. This week we will be meeting with a candidate to discern the best way forward. Thank you for your prayers. Ben Ollenburger

Prairie Street Service Circle has sewn bags and purchased contents for Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) school kits to be assembled during Fellowship 15 on December 1. We are asking members of the congregation (and anyone who may be reading this and feels led) to sponsor bags for $10 each by January 12, 2020. We will be donating one hundred school kits! Questions – contact Ellen Morey.

December 1, first Sunday of the month – no potluck, moved to December 8

Following worship on December 8 all attenders are encouraged to stay for the Annual Church Business Meeting. This is a time to review the previous year and act on next year's budget. (Promises that it won't be too long or laborious!). A potluck meal follows.

December 14 all are invited to come to the quarterly Roundtable Meeting, 9:00-11:00 am. Roundtable is a time to learn how Teams are working and serving the church, coordinate activities, dream new dreams and see the ways God is moving in our church.

A memorial service and meal for Harold Weaver will be held at PSMC on December 21, beginning at 10:30. am.

Carolyn Heydon will coordinate the meal and will need volunteers to assist with meal prep, table set-up, serving and clean up - consider volunteering to assist.

Donnabelle Fletcher celebrates her birthday on November 26. Donnabelle has not been able to worship with the congregation in the recent months due to health limitations. Let's shower her with our love by sending birthday cards.
